MELA MAGIC!

As part of Indian Now, this year's London Mela in Gunnersbury Park was its biggest yet. Amongst the fair rides, and mesmerising dance shows, international man of magic, Aladin, educated visitors about climate change as part of Charcool, a campaign to get people more eco-savvy! While he can't make Co2 emissions disappear he promises that if anyone can have a carbon lite barbecue he'll do a magic show for them. visit: www.magicaladin.com for more details
